

The Centre for Child Development
JOB POSTING
Temporary Part Time 0.70
(18 months)

Posting #: P-CT-2022-1

Job Title: Speech-Language Pathologist

Departments: Communication Therapy

Location: Surrey, Delta and Langley

Status: Temporary part time 0.70 FTE, 18 months

Hours of Work: 26.25 hours per week

Start Date: January 9, 2023

Union: Health Sciences Association

Job Rate: Speech-Language Pathologist - Grid Level 11

Reports to: Director of Communication Therapy

Job Summary: Providing speech-language services to a pediatric population using a family-centred service delivery model in conjunction with the other members of the intervention team.

Job Duties: Consultations, assessments, intervention to children age 0 – kindergarten entry living in the areas served by The Centre for Child Development (Surrey, Delta, Langley, White Rock). Intervention takes place on site, but can also occur virtually, in daycare, preschool or in the family's home.

Qualifications: Masters' Degree in Speech-Language Pathology (or equivalent).
Registration with the College of Speech and Hearing Health Professionals of BC.
Experience working with children with multiple disabilities aged birth to 6 years and their families.
Criminal record check, valid BC driver's license, satisfactory driver's abstract and access to a vehicle are required.
Provide proof of vaccination as per BC PHO order for Health and Community Care Workers.
Continuing education/practice with Autism Spectrum Disorder an asset.
Knowledge of Punjabi, Hindi, Urdu or other second language an asset.
Hanan Basic certification an asset.

Posting Date: Oct. 25, 2022

Closing Date: Nov. 4, 2022

How to Apply: Direct resumes to: Karen Edwards
Vice President, Medical Rehabilitation Services
karene@the-centre.org

cc: Langley Site
G. Bremault, Chief Executive Officer
Chief Steward HSA
K. Asaye, Chief Financial & Risk Officer
Lisa Theimer, CT Dept Director

THE CENTRE FOR CHILD DEVELOPMENT IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER